Congratulations on your engagement. I do appreciate that every day is unique and I aim to be flexible with the packages to provide the coverage you require.

- Two full sets of images Colour and Black and White.
- No set amount of images. With the documentary style of my photography, I provide however many images it takes to tell the full story of the day.
- 250-500+ images depending on the package chosen.
- No time limit. However long it takes to adequately capture the events you request.
- Password protected online gallery. The full resolution images can be downloaded and accessed through a personalised page in the 'Client Area' of my website. Making sharing and enjoying the images with family and friends simple.
