

Templeberg Villa - Colonial Homestay

Address: Babaragoda Road off Akuressa Road, Loressakanda, Wanchaawala, Kaduruduwa

Description: This villa is a serene, private retreat, discreetly hidden on a five acre coconut plantation, perched high on a hill surrounded by jungle and terraced cottage gardens, between emerald green paddy fields, water buffalo, pristine beaches and a Buddha statue in a charming traditional village. Just moments away from the heart of Galle, Sri Lanka, The Dutch colonial built Templebeg accommodation stands for a bygone era in Sri Lanka & is one of the few remaining Dutch Colonial merchant houses on the island.

Facilities & Services at Templeberg Villa

Plunge Pool	One Master suite with private ensuite bathroom Two separate Queen Rooms with private ensuite Standalone two bedroom cottage with own bathroom.	Formal sitting and eating areas, including internal rooms and spacious outdoor garden dining settings
Unlimited Free Wifi	Water Tower Viewing Platform with built-in cold water Jacuzzi	Tuk Tuk three Wheeler transport
Office/Safe	Private Cook and 8 full time staff	Towels and Linen, Laundry Services
Indoor/Outdoor Dining	Sri Lankan Tourism Authority Registered Guide on staff	Ceiling Fans/ Water Cooling Units
Western Kitchen	Apple Products	Yoga, Massage and Ayurvedic Wellbeing

Room Facilities at Templeberg Villa

Antique Four Poster Queen Beds	Mosquito Nets	Ceiling Fans
Antique Towel Drying Racks	Fresh Water	Antique Dressers
In room toiletries	Sri Lankan art and Paintings	Lockable rooms
Seating areas	Verandahs and terraces	Garden views

Location of Templeberg Villa

Galle, South Coast, Sri Lanka. 2- 3 hours drive from the International Airport via the Southern Expressway Highway