Chopped steak or chicken topped with peppers, onions, and mushrooms and then smothered in our homemade cheese sauce.

Be sure to ask any member of our staff about the On Deck special of the day. We are constantly scouting new items that could land a permanent spot on our menu's roster and the best way for us to test those items is to throw them onto the field and see how they do. The On Deck special could be a new burger, some sort of crazy appetizer for a table to share, or possibly even a cocktail that the bar-keeps are toying around with. After you finish devouring whatever the special may be make sure you let us know what you thought of it!
