1. HOW TO BOOK

Please telephone, fax, email or write to us at the address shown on the front of this insert.

Each passenger wishing to book a cruise must complete and sign the Booking Form attached to this insert. Once this has been forwarded and accepted by us together with the payment of the deposit due, we will send out a confirmation to you on behalf of the Operator, and a contract exists between you and the Operator. As soon as your confirmation is received, you must check the details carefully. If anything is not correct you should tell us immediately. Not less than 4 weeks prior to departure, we will issue you a Cruise Voucher ("the Ticket") on behalf of the Operator. This Ticket is required for embarkation.

Any Passenger signing as tour leader on behalf of a charter or other similar group warrants that he/she is authorised so to do. Each member of any such group shall be deemed to be a Passenger as herein defined and shall be bound by the signature of the tour leader.

8. BROCHURE DETAILS

We aim to ensure that the information provided by Operators is accurately conveyed in brochures, on our website and other promotional literature or material produced and circulated by us. There may be small differences between the actual vessel/other services and its/their description, as the Operators are always seeking to improve services and facilities. Occasionally, problems mean that some facilities or services become unavailable or subject to restriction. Neither we nor the Operators can accept responsibility for any changes or closures to area amenities or attractions mentioned in the brochure/website or advertised elsewhere.

9. SPECIAL REQUESTS

If you have any special requests you must advise us in detail on the form below. Although we will endeavour to pass any reasonable requests on to the Operator, no guarantees can be given that any request will be met. Confirmation that a special request has been noted or passed on to the Operator, or the inclusion of the special request on your written confirmation or any other documentation, does not constitute that the request will be met. Failure to meet any special request will not be a breach of contract. Conditional bookings cannot be accepted i.e. any booking which is specified to be conditional on the fulfilment of a particular request, unless specifically agreed by us in writing.

10. OUR RESPONSIBILITY

As agent for the Operator we cannot accept any liability for any act or omission on their part or of anyone representing, or employed by them and cannot accept any liability for any shortcomings or defects with or in any Vessel as they are within the sole control of the Operators. Your contract with the Operator is subject to their terms and conditions, which may contain additional limitations to their liability. If you have any complaints regarding any services we provide (as opposed to any provided by the Operator), you must inform us immediately in writing and in any event within 30 days of the end of any Arrangements booked through us. We regret we cannot accept any liability if we are not so notified. Our maximum liability to you if we are not notified to be at fault in relation to any service we provide (as opposed to any service provided by the Operator for whom we are not responsible) is limited to the commission we have earned or are due to earn in relation to the booking in question. We do not exclude or limit any liability for death or personal injury which arises as a result of our negligence.

11. COMMUNICATING WITH YOU

For the purposes of the Data Protection Act 1998, we are the sole data controller of all personal data provided to us by customers and prospective customers. In order to process your booking we need to collect certain personal details from you, for example names and addresses of party members, credit/debit card or other payment details, special requirements such as those relating to any disability or medical condition which may affect any party member's holiday arrangements and any dietary restrictions which may disclose religious beliefs.

If we need any other personal details, we will tell you before we obtain them from you. We need to pass on your personal details to the companies and organisations who need to know them so that your booking and any travel-related services (if any) can be provided (for example the Operator, Service Provider, other suppliers or agents, your credit/debit card company or bank) or for verification of details relating to your booking and any travel-related services booked. Such individuals, companies and organisations may be outside the European Union. Data protection legislation in those countries may differ from that in the UK.

We also need to process and store your personal details for our own administration, market analyses and operation reviews, and may disclose information to organisations who act as "data processors" on our behalf for this purpose. Please see our privacy policy for full details, which is available on our website.

We may disclose customers' names, contact details and booking preferences to any of our trading divisions or to any company within our group of companies, or any subsidiaries of such companies who offer goods or services which we feel may be of interest to you. We may also disclose your details to immigration or law enforcement authorities where we are required to do so.

Except where expressly permitted by the Data Protection Act 1998, we will only deal with the personal details you give to us as set out above unless you agree otherwise. You are generally entitled to ask us (by letter, fax or e-mail) if and how we are processing your personal details. We are entitled to charge a fee in responding to such a request. We promise to respond to your request within 40 days of receiving this in writing and payment of the appropriate fee (if required by us). In certain limited circumstances we are entitled to refuse your request. We may also record or monitor telephone calls to and from us for staff or training purposes.

This document provides a summary of key terms which are used by many of the Operators for whom we act as agent.

If the terms of any Operators terms and conditions conflict with this summary, the Operators terms will prevail. In the absence of any such Operators terms and conditions, then the terms laid out in these Terms and Conditions shall apply as Operator terms and conditions.

The Passenger understands and agrees that neither we nor the Operator are liable or responsible for the following:

- any personal injury, death, property damage or loss occasioned by theft, vandalism, fire, water, weather conditions, explosion, or any cause whatsoever, whether foreseeable or unforeseeable, or for any loss of whatever kind or nature arising out of or in connection with the acts or omissions, whether foreseeable or unforeseeable or any loss of any kind or nature arising out of or in connection with the acts or omissions, whether negligent or intended of any third party, regardless of the relationship, if any, between such third party and the Passenger or the Operator or us; and
- any Force Majeure event as specified in Clause 21 below; and
- any additional expenses incurred by the Passenger as a result of any delay or failure of and/or by any Operator or contractor of any services connected with the specific booking; and
- any loss sustained by the Passenger as a result of any cancellation, delay, advancement or postponement of any tour by any Operator or any service provider such as steamship company, airline, railroad, vehicle rental company, hotel or similar or their agent.

13. RESERVATION OF RIGHTS

We, on behalf of the Operators, reserve the right to:

- increase cruise prices to cover increases in costs or the effects of exchange rate movements, incurred after the publication of this Price List;
 - accept a maximum of one cabin for single occupancy for any single cruise on barges of 8 passenger capacity or less, and two cabins for single capacity on all other barges;
 - cancel any itinerary in whole or in part;
 - make such alteration to any itinerary as it reasonably deems necessary or desirable;
 - refuse to accept or retain as a member of a tour any person at any time. In no circumstances will the Passenger be allowed to embark unless the full cruise fare due has been paid.
- In the event of alteration or cancellation, the Operator may, but is not obliged to, substitute or provide another vessel of similar standard. Otherwise, the Operator shall refund any fare paid.
- Waterway routes and vessel alterations and substitutions: All routes are subject to change without notice. Some waterways may be subject to occasional closures due to drought, storms, floods, canal or lock repairs, National holidays or other unforeseen circumstances that result in conditions unsafe for navigation. In the unlikely event of such occurrences, the following conditions shall apply:
- if navigation must be suspended, Passengers will continue to be accommodated on the stationary Vessel and the regular excursions will continue to be made, with cruising to be continued as soon as possible. By way of compensation for any suspension of cruising, additional excursions will be provided by the Vessel's crew,
 - we, on behalf of the Operator, reserve the right to reverse a cruise route, cruise another waterway or transfer Passengers to another vessel of similar standard,
 - in any decision related to navigation, the judgement of the Vessel's Captain on any action or inaction is considered final.

14. NON-SMOKING POLICY

In accordance with legislation, a strict non-smoking policy applies in all internal areas of all Vessels. Those passengers who wish to smoke must do so outdoors ie on the deck and sun-deck area away from other passengers.

15. CHILDREN

The minimum age of child accepted on board is 12 years except for Charters and special "Family Departures" (please enquire for further details) for which Children under 12 years are welcome.

All children under the age of 18 years accepted onboard qualify for a discount of $300 per child per week on all vessels except La Nouvelle Etoile and Absolut2. Children under the age of 18 are only accepted on Athos as part of a charter booking and qualify for a discount of $300 per child. Children under the age of 8 are not accepted on Clair de Lune even as part of a charter booking.

16. PETS

No pets are permitted onboard other than on charters and with the prior written agreement of the Operator. Certain vessels do operate with a small dog on board as a Captain's pet. Passengers with dog related allergies should declare this on the Booking Form. We cannot accept liability for any reactions from undeclared allergies.

17. DISABILITY

Passengers who are disabled are asked to advise our reservations staff of the nature of their disability at the time of booking as some Vessels and/or itineraries may be unsuitable.

If we or the Operator reasonably feel unable to properly accommodate the particular needs of the person concerned we reserve the right to decline or cancel the reservation.

18. COMPENSATION

If the Operator cancels a cruise and/or other Arrangement for any reasons (other than force majeure or default by the Passenger), or makes a material alteration to the cruise and/or Arrangement for reasons other than force majeure, after the date when payment of the balance of the price becomes due, in addition to a full refund, compensation will be payable on the following scale per person: 56 or more days prior to departure - Nil; 55-42 days - $30; 41-28 days - $100; 27-14 days - $160; less than 14 days - $240.

19. COMPLAINTS

Every effort has been made to ensure that you have an enjoyable and memorable cruise. If, however, you have any cause for complaint then we, together with the Operator are anxious that remedial action is taken as soon as possible. It is essential that you contact us immediately if any problem arises so that it can be speedily resolved whilst you are still on board. It is often extremely difficult (and sometimes impossible) to resolve difficulties properly unless we are promptly notified. If, after this, you feel that the problem has not been resolved to your satisfaction, then the party leader must, within 30 days of returning from your cruise, put your complaint in writing to us.

This procedure is designed to ensure the speediest possible investigation and rectification of complaints. Please help us and the Operator to help you by following this procedure.

If you fail to do so, this may affect your entitlement to claim compensation where this would or may otherwise have been appropriate. As an agent for the Operator, we cannot accept any liability other than as defined in Clause 10, and any assistance provided in resolving a complaint in relation to your booking is provided on a goodwill basis and in our capacity as agent only.

20. UNDERTAKINGS OF THE PASSENGER

The Passenger expressly agrees to the following:

- that (subject to any declaration under Clause 16 above) he/she is in good general health;
- that he/she shall abide by the safety instructions as given out by the Captain and crew of the Vessel and displayed on board;
- that he/she shall not operate or seek to operate any vehicle or other technical equipment owned or operated by a Vessel, hotel or other service provider except bicycles that are made available by the crew for the express use of the Passengers; and
- that he/she shall indemnify and hold harmless both European Waterways Limited and the Operator, its employees, agents, representatives and assigns against any and all liabilities, costs and expenses (including legal fees and costs of litigation) which may be incurred in connection with any claims, suits or any cause of action brought by him/her against any third party, or by any third party against him/her, his/her heirs, representatives or assigns regarding injury or loss to person or property sustained by him/her or such third party, directly or indirectly, arising out of events, acts or omissions, no matter how caused or created, that occur during the course of a cruise tour.

21. BEHAVIOUR

The Operators (or we, on behalf of the Operator) reserve the right within their reasonable discretion to terminate your cruise, without notice, if you or your party's conduct or behaviour is disruptive in any way and/or affects the enjoyment of other passengers. No liability will be accepted for any extra costs incurred by you or your party as a result of any such termination. You accept responsibility for any damage or loss caused by you/ your party. Full payment for any such damage or loss must be paid direct at the time to the Operator in question. You/ your party will be required to leave the vessel/ other service. Neither we nor the Operator will have any further responsibility toward you including any return travel arrangements. No refunds will be made nor payments towards any expenses or costs incurred as a result of the termination.

22. FORCE MAJEURE

Except where otherwise expressly stated in these Booking Conditions, we regret that neither we nor the Operator can accept liability or pay any compensation where the performance or prompt performance of the obligations under your contract is prevented or affected by or you otherwise suffer any damage or loss as a result of "force majeure". In these Booking Conditions "force majeure" means an event beyond the reasonable control of the Operator and/or us (as applicable) which we or the Operator in question could not, even with all due care, foresee or avoid including, but not limited to closure of navigation, strike, lock-out, labour dispute, act of God, war, riot, civil commotion, malicious damage, compliance with a law or governmental order, rule, regulation or direction, accident, breakdown of plant or machinery, fire, flood, snow and storm, difficulty or increased cost in obtaining goods, goods or transport and other circumstances affecting the supply of goods or services.
