Description:

Staten Island Appliance Repair serve Staten Island local residents since 1995. During this extended period we have got a lot of satisfied customers and granted a new life to numerous essential and habitual major appliances dishwashers, refrigerators, washers and dryers, freezers, stoves and ovens.

We provide excellent and forehanded service to households and small businesses. Our professionals are always frank and honest with the customers about the reasons of faultinesses, cost of spare parts, necessity of their replacement and available alternatives. We bill only perfect and accomplished work when the clients are satisfied and the prices are honest, affordable, real and market oriented.

Our professionals provide fast service even late in the evening while express charges or hidden fees are absent. Thus we help Staten Island house owners to save family budget and keep the household in good order.
