"Tripaway Corporate Travel and specifically Mary has always dealt with our bookings, cancellations and changes in a positive and professional approach - often at short notice. More importantly Tripaway has saved our business 10% on our previous travel spend by sourcing the best corporate airfares and hotels directly on our behalf. I would strongly recommend Tripaway to any business looking to save time and money on their business travel."

OUR AMERICAN EXPRESS® ALLIANCE

Our association with American Express, through our Helloworld American Express Australian alliance, delivers worldwide benefits to our partners. Distinct from its competitors, American Express is a global brand at the forefront of travel, financial and business services. American Express delivers products globally for more than 65 million customers, including over a million customers in Australia.

MEMBERSHIP REWARDS™

American Express Card members can use their Membership Rewards points to pay for any travel through Tripaway Corporate Travel. Points can be used to pay for any travel booking including the best available fare with any airline, hotel, car hire, cruise, packages, taxes, travel insurance and service fees. Every booking paid with American Express earns reward points equivalent to 1% of total spend.

BEST FARE OF THE DAY

We ensure that we secure your travelling employees the best available airfare. We search and compare prices across all available airlines for a required route whilst adhering to your company's travel policy. We also offer you the flexibility to make multiple ticket changes through your travel manager, prior to ticketing, with no charges (airline charges may apply).

BUSINESS TRAVEL INSURANCE

We offer a comprehensive yet flexible travel insurance policy for your travelling employees. Our annual policy provides cover for an unlimited number of journeys, both international and domestic, and can be extended to cover the traveller's spouse and children.

HOTELS AT CORPORATE RATES

As a part of the Helloworld American Express group we have access to the largest selection of hotel rates from around the world. We work with the best specialist operators and aggregators to ensure you get the best deals on the hotel you want in the area you want. Whether you are booking last minute or in advance we ensure you get the best available hotel rates.

You can waste hours searching the internet for last minute hotel rates, or we can find you the best rate of the day, every time!

QUALITY CARS AT CORPORATE RATES

We offer quality rental cars from a choice of the world's major rental car companies. We offer you the flexibility of using your preferred company or whoever is offering the best rate on your preferred vehicle on the day. We offer the convenience of no paperwork or queues, with car rental depots at all major Australian and international airports, cities and at various remote locations.

Once again. Don't waste your time and energy on the internet. Let us do the work for you – we offer you the best rates and service every time.
