Thank you for your Enquiry

Hi

Congratulations on your forthcoming Marriage!!

The fact that I am sending you this brochure means you are about to embark on your Wedding Planning Journey, which as well as being incredibly exciting, can also be a complete minefield!

I'm sure you probably have wedding photography packages coming out of your ears by now, so I've tried to keep mine really simple, yet comprehensive. I have tried to cover all situations and budgets as best I can, but should you find the below packages are not suitable, please feel free to come back to me and I can build a personal one to suit your needs.

If you haven't already done so, please visit my website www.traceyann.co.uk and take a look at my photographs to be sure my Photojournalistic style of Photography suits your tastes. It's really important that you choose a photographer whose style suits you – it is after all your day and EVERYTHING should be just how you want it to be including your photography !

❖ PACKAGES 2013/2014 ❖

All Packages include the following....

- A comprehensive consultation before the wedding, to establish your exact photographic requirements and discuss ideas etc.
- A written wedding plan for your file, so it's clear before the day exactly what I will be doing and when.
- Before the wedding I visit the location/locations involved in your day and speak with the wedding co-ordinator to ensure I am fully versed on the running order of the wedding, and that I am familiar with the building, rooms and surrounding gardens before the big day.
- You will have me at your disposal for the time agreed, I will be taking natural candid shots throughout the agreed time and I will also take formal shots as requested/ agreed at the pre-wedding consultation. Time permitting, I will capture ALL details, such as dresses, shoes, jewellery, flowers, napkins, favours, cake, room decorations, and rings, so you will have a record of all the lovely little things that sometimes you don't get time to fully enjoy on the day.

• After the wedding all chosen images (amount of images dependent on package) will be fully edited and retouched (this includes skin retouching on the bride to ensure she is looking her absolute best on all images)
This process can take 2 to 3 weeks, after which time the images are uploaded to my website where they can be viewed by you and your family/guests.

• Images can be purchased via the website if required.
Prices start from £5 up to approx. £40.
I try to keep my prices down to enable family and friends to be able to enjoy your photos.

Throughout the whole process, I am here to give you advice and answer any questions you may have about your photographs.
