

Thai Food

Sawadee means "greetings" in Thai and we would like to extend a warm welcome to you. The Thai people are renowned for their friendliness to visitors and we hope that you will experience some of the charm and courtesy of old Siam during your meal with us.

Thai cuisine is, by and large, spicy but with a blend of herbs, spices, roots and leaves that serve, not to conceal, but to enhance the natural flavours and textures to the main ingredients. Rice is the staple diet of the Thai people and a meal consists of a series of accompaniments to a plate of freshly boiled Jasmine Rice. In order to achieve a balance of flavours, many dishes are combined to form a meal, these are presented together at the table and everybody helps themselves.

We have endeavoured to present a menu that displays the best of Thai cooking so that you can appreciate the authentic flavours of one of the world's richest cuisines. If you would like a menu tailored to your own requirements, this can be arranged.

Beverages

To accompany your meal with offer a range of soft drinks including Still Orange, Pineapple, or Apple Juice, Fizzy drinks including Diet Coke, Coke and Lemonade.

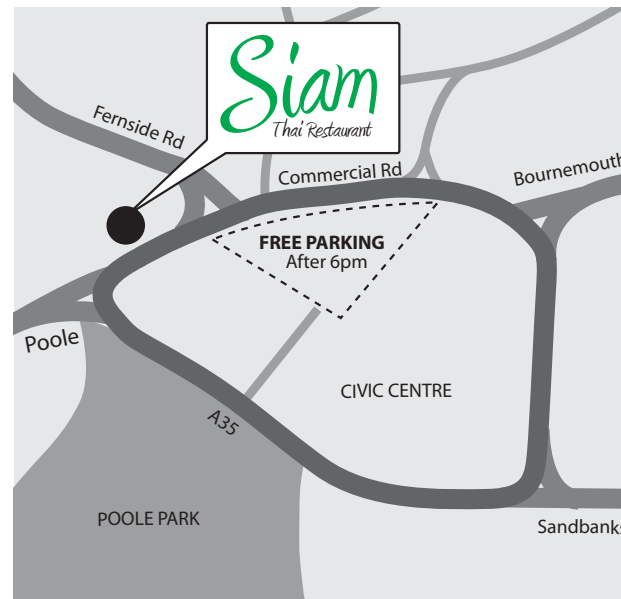

We also have a selection of bottled beers, Chang and Singha from Thailand and Peroni from Italy.

We have a selection of White, Rose and Red wines that have been picked to suit our Thai food.
