Speciality Teas

Pot for one £3.20 / Pot for two £4.90

Afternoon Darjeeling

From Darjeeling in the foothills of the Himalayas. A light, golden tea with a subtle, delicate flavour likened to muscatel grapes. A fine black tea, serve with or without milk or lemon and brew for at least five minutes.

Assam (Pure)

This tea comes from the rich and fertile plains of the Brahmaputra Valley in the Assam region of north east India. With a strong, malty liquor, this is a powerful black tea with a full-body and a brisk, invigorating flavour; perfect for kick-starting your day. This tea is best enjoyed with milk.

Ceylon (Pure)

This tea comes from the very best highland tea gardens in the Dimbula region of Sri Lanka. Ceylon tea has a light, citrus-like characteristic, it also tastes delicious iced. This tea can be enjoyed at any time of the day. Serve with or without milk.

China Rose

A black China tea, which is layered with rose petals during the drying process so that the tea leaves are delicately scented. This tea is pale and delicate. Best served without milk.

China Yunnan

Light, clear and golden in the cup. This black tea has a nutty, sweet aroma and taste, this is the result of the climatic conditions in which it is grown. Serve with or without milk as an afternoon tea.

Decaffeinated

A blend of quality East African teas. This tea has been decaffeinated by means of a natural CO2 process, which does not contain any harmful chemicals and reduces the caffeine content to 0.003%.

Earl Grey

This is the most famous flavoured tea. The secret recipe was said to have been given to one of Earl Grey's diplomats in 1830 by a Chinese Mandarin as a reward for saving his life. It is a blend of fine black China teas and natural oil of bergamot. Serve with or without milk or lemon at any time of the day.

English Breakfast

Created with a blend of the best quality black teas from the highlands of East Africa and Ceylon, English breakfast is the most popular of the "Speciality Teas". A brisk, refreshing flavour, drink with or without milk.

Green Tea

An excellent digestive after a meal. This tea has a light refreshing flavour. Make with water off the boil and infuse for 2-3 minutes. Serve on its own, without milk or lemon.

Green China with Jasmine Blossom

Created from an ancient Chinese recipe. This tea is a combination of green tea leaves and jasmine flowers. Serve on its own, without milk or lemon.

Imperial Gunpowder

This is a classic green china tea made from young, whole unfermented tea leaves. The green leaves are tightly rolled into little balls said to resemble lead shot, which "explode" (unfurl) when covered with freshly boiled water in the teapot. A light coloured liquor with a slightly sharp flavour. Serve on its own to appreciate the subtle flavour.

Keemun China

Grown in the mist-shrouded mountains of the Anhui province of Northern China, this is an exceptionally well-balanced, aromatic black tea with a delicate "biscuity" flavour.

Kwazulu (Ntingwe)

Our special Kwazulu tea comes from Ntingwe tea estate in Kwazulunatal, South Africa. Very little South African tea is exported so we ensure that we always pay a fair price to secure some of the very best teas for our single estate caddy. A unique tea that is brisk, bright and refreshing. Best served with milk.

Lapsang Souchong

This black tea from China has a distinctive taste that is produced when it is smoked in the traditional manner, by hanging the tea in baskets over pine chips. Serve without milk.

Scottish Breakfast

A specially selected blend of black teas to give the best infusion in the soft waters of Scotland. The end result is a rich, strong and full bodied tea with a distinctive malty taste. Serve with milk.

Richmond Tea Room Blend

Blended from black teas from Assam, Kenya and Rwanda, these combine to create a strong, rich and full-bodied blend, with a satisfying flavour. Perfect served with milk at any time of the day.

Soya Milk - we are happy to serve our beverages with soya milk (additional charge of 50p). Please ask when ordering.
