

Bauhinia

Pan-Asian Bar Restaurant

Two courses £8.90 per person (Served between 12pm to 7pm)

Starters

Tom yam gai (T) – hot and sour soup with chicken, chilli and lemongrass

Lumpia (V) – four deep-fried spring rolls filled with vegetables, served with house sweet dip

Yasai tempura (V) – aubergines, shitake and courgettes in light, crispy Japanese batter, served with house sweet chilli dip

Tod mun pla – three small deep-fried spicy salmon fish cakes served with house sweet chilli dip

Chochok – three skewers of Malaysian-style satay chicken served with house peanut dip

Guo tie dumplings (V) – four grilled Chinese-style dumplings filled with minced pork, served with spicy gingery soy dip

Mains

Nasi goreng (T) – Malaysian-style fried rice with chicken, tiger prawns, egg ribbons, vegetables and spicy chilli paste

Mee goreng (T) – Malaysian-style fried egg noodles with chicken, tiger prawns, egg ribbons, vegetables and chilli paste

Singapore fried noodle (T) – stir-fried rice noodles with tiger prawns, fish cake slices, egg ribbons, vegetables and curry spice

Pad thai (T) stir-fried flat rice noodles with chicken, tiger prawns, egg ribbons, pak choy, chilli and ground peanuts

Kari ayam (T) – Malaysian-style curry, medium-hot, chicken breast pieces, sweet and white potatoes, served with rice

Gaeng keaw wan (T) – Thai green chicken curry, medium hot, chicken breast pieces and aubergines, served with rice

Teriyaki chicken (T) – stir-fried pak choy with chicken breast pieces in a Japanese soy flavoured sauce, served with rice

Thai basil chicken (T) – medium hot, Thai sweet basil and chilli sauce with chicken breast pieces, served with rice

(V) Indicates a vegetarian dish or vegetarian option is available

(T) Indicates an option is available for meat to be substituted with tofu

All curry dishes use nuts and shrimp paste

Bauhinia cannot guarantee that any products sold on the premises are totally free of nut derivatives or that any fish dishes are free of bones