

WTG's business model is based on customized and personal services.

We will work together with on your tailored wishes, needs and demands in order to provide you with a complete itinerary for medical, health and wellness packages.

This means we are not like expedia.com or any other booking engine where you can book online and then left "on your own" we guide you all the way and we are there for you 24/7 to communicate with you whenever you need assistance.

Please contact us for all your inquiries or quotations, we are happy to assist you.
