FRENCH WHITES

1. Muscadet Château du Clèray Sur-Lie (1-2) £14.90
Sèvre et Maine, Sauvion et Fils 2005/06
From one of the oldest properties in Muscadet, this wine was aged in wood - that explains a full flavoured palate which is well balanced by a refreshing acidity.
2. Sancerre Les Boffants (1) £18.50
Domaine Charles Dupuy 2005/06
The region of Sancerre gives the most elegant expression of the Sauvignon Blanc grape. The wine is very fragrant and fresh, with rich fruits and a well balanced acidity.
3. Gewürztraminer, Côtes de Rouffach (4) £16.50
René Muré 2003/04
A rich and spicy wine with aromas like rose petals and grapefruit. Dry but with a soft finish.
4. Mâcon Blanc Villages, Georges Duboeuf (2) £13.90
Burgundy 2005/06
A delicious Chardonnay, with good fruits on the palate and a refreshing finish. From Georges Duboeuf, widely acknowledged as the top producer of the region.
5. Chablis Domaine Saint Claire (1) £17.90
J.M Brocard 2005/06
A bright coloured, light and refreshing wine with crisp, clean characteristics of the Chardonnay grape. Good value.
6. Chablis 1er Cru Vau Ligneau (2) £22.50
Domaine Thierry Hamelin 2003/04
Very bright colour, deep and rich on the palate. A very stylish wine with good acidity.
