Harbourne Blue

This highly unusual and delicious goats' cheese is different to most English blues as it is not creamy but crumbly with a hint of sweetness, whilst being fresh and light. This is our favourite of the Ticklemore Farm trio as it has a divine peppery aftertaste.

Ossau Iraty

Ossau Iraty is a wonderful sheep's milk cheese produced in a specific area of the French Pyrenees. The name is derived from the production area that includes the neighbouring provinces: the Ossau Valley, located in the Bearn and the wooded hills of Iraty, in the French Basque country.

Tunworth

A soft, creamy English cheese with a strong, rich flavour and smooth texture. The English cousin of the French camembert. Handmade by two friends, Stacey Hedges and Julie Cheyney, the milk is bought in from a neighbouring herd of pedigree Holsteins.

Served with candied walnut, fig jelly, celery & biscuits
