The History of Tewin Bury

The Williams family has farmed Tewin Bury, a 130-acre farm since 1932.

When the neighbouring farm came up for sale in 1980, the Williams' sold their cows and bought the additional land that was to take them into a new direction. As an experiment the family decided to open four rooms in their Farmhouse as guest accommodation. These rooms were a huge success and it was from here that Tewin Bury Farm Hotel was born.

The need for an on site restaurant then became a priority, which led to the conversion of the chicken shed, which has become renowned throughout the local community as "The Tewin Bury Pie". Following the success of the restaurant further adjoining farm buildings were developed into bedrooms, banqueting and conference facilities.

Now, more than twenty years later, Tewin Bury Farm is a substantial and successful family business, comprising a 490-acre farm, a 29 bedroom country house hotel and restaurant, with eight function rooms of which two fully renovated period buildings offering the perfect wedding venue. All serviced by a dedicated and friendly team of staff who will ensure your visit is a very memorable one.

The Tythe Barn

The authentic 17th Century Tythe Barn, set on the banks of the river Mimram, is one of the largest conference venues available in the Hertfordshire area and can cater for “theatre style” conferences for up to 160 delegates.

With its beautiful original oak beams, under floor heating, natural daylight and direct access to break out areas and a large paved patio area, it truly is our most popular venue.

The Millstream Suite

Located on the first floor, with beautiful views over the river Mimram, this latest addition is a self-contained, air-conditioned conference suite (complete with its own bar, toilet facilities and disabled lift).

The ideal venue for medium sized meetings, corporate drinks receptions or even private or corporate dinner parties.

The room offers direct access to a “Roof Garden” that lends itself as an ideal “coffee & lunch break area” (weather permitting).

The Mimram Room

Situated opposite the Millstream Suite and above the Tythe Barn, this room can be used in conjunction with either The Tythe Barn or the Millstream Suite, or on an individual basis. Overlooking the river Mimram and the meadow this delightful airy room is ideal for small meetings and product launches.

The Stockman Lounge

Our “Executive Boardroom” situated in the original Farmhouse, offers great views and direct access to the Gardens.

Recently refurbished with an authentic (extendable) oak table, very comfortable leather club chairs and dressed with original pieces of furniture, it is ideally suited to the more intimate boardroom meetings. (maximum of 8 delegates).

The Stable and Blacksmiths

Dating back to the 17th Century, The Stable Block has been sympathetically converted into a self-contained conference suite, comprising of two rooms, 'The Stable' and 'Blacksmiths'.

These rooms are available separately or as a single unit, depending on your requirements.

The Stable Galleries located at either end of the main room, make excellent 'syndicate' or 'break-out' areas, along with Blacksmiths, which can accommodate 8 people, 'boardroom' style, or be used as extra breakout space, if required.

Following recent refurbishment work, the Stable and Blacksmiths, now have direct access to the newly paved patio area, overlooking the river Mimram, furnished with quality garden furniture, large umbrellas, and built-in patio heaters. We are certain that this will prove a popular lunch & coffee break area, come rain or shine!

The Riverview

This multi-functional meeting area, with floor-to-ceiling windows, looks out over the river where you can see the Bird Sanctuary and Water Meadow, making this a most relaxing venue for a less formal meeting.

This room also offers an independent and convenient bar facility for the Tythe Barn, which is located right next door.

The Tewin Room

The Tewin Room was opened in 2003 and is proving to be one of our most popular meeting rooms. It has been exclusively designed for the use of high-tech equipment and is ideal for worldwide video conferencing, with air-conditioning, lots of natural daylight and its' own patio, overlooking the river.
