

PORSADRILL®

Retailers – you know the problem!

Installers struggle to drill holes into porcelain tiles – and then blame the tile shop...

365 DRILLS HELP RETAILERS BY PROVIDING THE SOLUTION

PORSADRILL is the well known trusted brand of diamond drill kits for very hard tiles.

Make life easy for your branch and staff and make profit. Take £2000 worth of PORSADRILL for a two month no-obligation trial.

We will come to your branch and install a free display panel and hooks. We include a free anti-theft security system, free point of sale leaflet dispensers and you get the stock. At the end of the trial if you like the system just pay for the stock. If you are not in profit by the second month will remove the system. Don't worry it WILL work out. It always does!

If you and your staff are fed up with complaints about competitor drills failing, costing too much, difficult to use and not enough choices of sizes then its time you had a BRAND in your store. Switch to PORSADRILL and eliminate all these issues once and for all. You have everything to gain. Our track record is excellent. We have been helping retailers make life easy for installers make money from sales for 10 years. We are still here so decide today to make this the year that we help you.

Try it for two months. Watch your profits increase through sales of these easy to use kits. You have NOTHING to lose.
