Wedding Photography

In creating these options for Wedding Photography we have endeavoured to provide flexibility and to include something for all budgets. All options can be customised to your exact requirements. If you can't see what you're looking for, tell us and we will send you a quote for a bespoke option.

Our Wedding Photography Options all include an initial consultation, a pre-wedding meeting, a complimentary engagement sitting either at our studio or on location locally, Full day coverage of your wedding and an on-line secure gallery for your proofs.

We offer two album based ranges, with a selection of different options within each range, and a disc only option.

Starting prices for each option are shown below. Please visit our website for our full price lists.

Disc only Option

For those who don't want a wedding album, this option includes the same service, but instead of an album you receive a Disc containing all your high resolution, unmarked images.

Disc only package with single photographer - £850

Disc only package with two photographers - £990

Our Storybook Range

For those who are looking for the ultimate in design flexibility, the Storybook albums provide you with an extra-special record of your day. We capture the essence of your special day and present it in a magazine style layout which is bound into a handmade coffee table book to create the story of your wedding day. Each page in your album is unique, designed according to your own taste. This album style allows for multiple images per page with unlimited layout options.

We offer three album sizes within our Storybook range. Across the range Albums are available with 10-50 leaves.

Piccolo
