

Wide enough to cover your straps if you prefer to wear a bra for added support

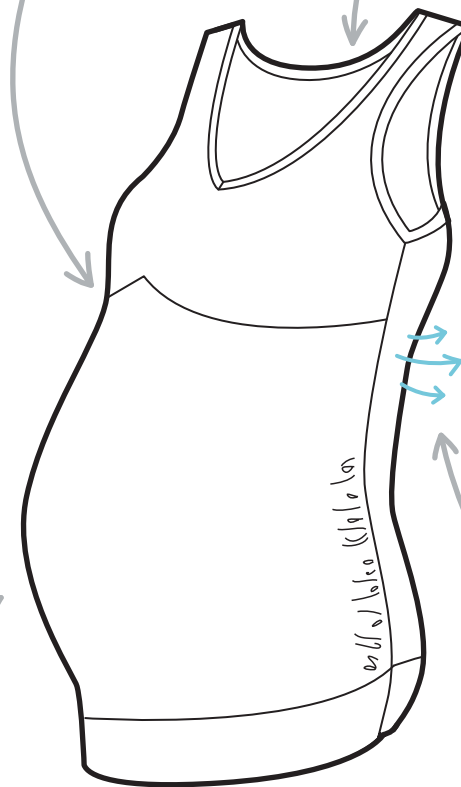

Gently ruched design is flattering in early pregnancy and after your baby is born, with plenty of room as your bump grows bigger

Soft, stretchy FittaMamma fabric with extra cotton content hugs your bump whilst you keep active

Soft flat seams avoid chafing your skin

Built in inner bra for comfort with softly covered elastic under your bust

Printed care labels won't irritate skin

CoolDry fibre technology moves perspiration through the fabric to keep you cool, dry and comfortable

Firm, wide fully covered elastic provides extra support for your bump and fits snugly around your pelvis and hips for extra comfort when your joints loosen in later pregnancy
