DETAILED PROGRAMME

1). ARRIVAL/DELHI

On arrival our Maavalan representative will meet you at the airport to welcome you and transfer you to hotel.

Overnight at hotel in Delhi.

2). DELHI

After breakfast, proceed for the sightseeing of Old Delhi, previously known as Shahjahanabad, You will then take a rickshaw ride in Chandni Chowk.

Chandni Chowk is the busiest market in Old Delhi. Noisy, chaotic and uniquely Indian, it is famous for its several restaurants and confectioners. Needless to say, this is a rickshaw ride you will never forget!

Stop at the magnificent Jama Masjid, the largest mosque in India and the final architectural extravagance of Shah Jahan.

Later during the day, drive along Rajpath, a two mile long avenue originally the focal point of British India and now used for parades lined with ornamental canals.

Drive past India Gate, built to commemorate the Indian and British soldiers who died in World War 1, Parliament House and Rashtrapati Bhawan, standing at the crest of Raisina hill Lutyen's 20th century architectural masterpiece was built for the viceroy during British rule and is now the President's residence. Visit one of the most inspirational monuments of Delhi's past-Humayun Tomb, ornate Mughal style of architecture built in 1565 by a Persian architect.

Overnight at hotel in Delhi.

3). DELHI-JAIPUR

In the morning, leave by surface for Jaipur. Upon arrival, you will check in at the hotel and relax.

Later in the evening you will take an auto rickshaw ride through the local bazaars. The Jaipur bazaars offer an array of items ranging from traditional art, handicrafts etc.

Return to your hotel to spend the night.

Overnight at hotel in Jaipur.

4). JAIPUR

After breakfast, you will explore the 'Pink City' of Jaipur. You will begin with a visit to the Amber Fort. Bordering the Maota Lake, this beautiful citadel merges both Hindu and Mughal style of architecture. The greatest way to explore the fort is to ride up to it on an elephant!

You will also stop to photograph the beautiful Hawa Mahal or the Palace of Winds is a popular landmark in Jaipur. Made of pink sand stone, the façade is almost pyramid shaped and adorned with latticework.

Afterwards, you will visit the City Palace. The City Palace is in fact a palace complex built by Maharaja Sawai Jai Singh. Many of the rooms have been turned into museums and galleries allowing visitors to catch a glimpse of Rathasthan's regal past. You will then get to explore the Jantar Mantar, an astronomical observatory dating back to around 1730.

Overnight at hotel in Jaipur.

5). JAIPUR-AGRA

Early morning leave for Agra by surface. Enroute visit Fatehpur Sikhri. The architecture of Fatehpur Sikhri has a definite all-India character. It is prolific and versatile Indo-Muslim composite style, which is a fusion of the composite cultures of indigenous and foreign origins. Arrival and check in at hotel in Agra.

Overnight at hotel in Agra.

6).AGRA

Early morning visit of Taj Mahal. It is actually a mausoleum, commissioned by Emperor Shah Jahan in loving memory of his wife Mumtaz Mahal. Construction of this marble wonder began in 1632 and was completed around 1653. Thousands of labourers were employed to construct the monument, that is replete with decorate inlays, carvings and calligraphy. To this very day, the Taj is considered an architectural marvel. Next visit the Agra Fort. This is a 16th century Mughal fortress built of red sandstone and comprises of many fairy tale palaces.

Overnight at hotel in Agra.

7).AGRA- DELHI/DEPARTURE

Depart by surface for Delhi, late in the afternoon. Arrival in the city and transfer to the airport to board flight for the next destination
