THE GROVE

LONDON'S COUNTRY ESTATE

Welcome to the Mansion Lounges. This is where the Earls of Clarendon would host and entertain notable guests including Queen Victoria, George Stubbs and Captain Cook.

The 5th Earl of Clarendon became Queen Victoria's 'Aide de Camp' – her Secretary and Aide - and started the English tradition of lavish house parties for the Queen and her posse. House guests included Edward VII, Horace Walpole and Lord Palmerston. It was a new phenomena which The Times named "Weekending".

In the 1920's the aristocratic family left The Grove causing The Times to publish a letter mourning the passing of "One of the greatest political houses of the 19th Century".

Today, we are delighted to be welcoming you to this wonderful Mansion house to share our hospitality in the true spirit of The Grove and where I hope you too will feel like royalty.

Loose Leaf Tea

Black tea comes from the same plant as green tea but is left to ferment once picked, which develops the tannins and gives the tea a much stronger flavour.

English Breakfast £5.50

A blend of teas, mainly from the Uva district of Ceylon (Sri Lanka). Almost a generic name for tea, English Breakfast Tea can be found all over the world.

Mokalbarie Assam £5.50

Grown on the Mokalbarie Estate in the Brahmaputra Valley in Northern India this is a stronger tea with a characteristic strong malt flavour and hints of spice.

Jungpana Darjeeling £5.50

Grown high in the foothills of the Himalayas, Darjeeling is renowned as the finest Indian Tea. A highly aromatic, delicate tea - best experienced without milk.

Earl Grey £5.50

A blend of teas from China and India that are scented with citrus Bergamot oil. Created by chance during a rough sea passage, a wonderful afternoon tea.

Tarry Lapsang Souchong £5.50

A classic tea from China with a characteristic smoky aroma of resinous wood. A robust tea that is at its best drunk on its own.

Splendid Oolong £5.50

A partially fermented tea from Formosa (Taiwan). A medium tea with a nutty and doughy flavour that is quite delicious.
