The essence of good food is time.

We cook to order, please allow us the time

We hope to make the time you spend in our restaurant relaxed and enjoyable. We have tried to create a friendly, warm and personal atmosphere, where you, the customer, will be made to feel as though nothing is too much trouble.

You will find that our menu is very extensive and has a large number of dishes from all regions of India. However, if you would like us to modify any dish, or there is a particular meal you would like us to create, our chef would be very happy to try and please you.

Our aim is to impress you with our service and quality, to make your return an occasion to look forward to.
