3.Limney Estate Blanc de Blancs 2007

12% Alc Vol

Davenport Estate, East Sussex

The Limney Estate Blanc de Blancs, made from 100% Reichenstener grapes, is a lovely pale golden straw colour in appearance with a fine persistent bead of bubbles. The nose offers fruity notes of bruised apple, cooked pears and apple pie. These are supported by a gentle autolytic character with hints of toast and biscuit. The nose leads to a rich and creamy palate with a fine mousse, and well structured in terms of sweetness and acidity, giving a good length. We love it!

Bottle: £38.50
Glass 125ml £7.00

3a Tickerage Blush 2009

Blackboys Vineyard, Sussex, England

Combines the flavours of classic champagne varieties. It has delicate bubbles, a fine mousse and a soft pink hue. Combined with the summer fruits nose, this leads to a fresh strawberries and cream on the palate

Bottle: £38.00
Glass 125ml £6.50

3bBreaky Bottom, Cuvée ~Alexandre Schwatschko 2008

Rodmell, East Sussex

Another of the pioneering vineyards in Sussex, Breaky Bottom lies in a fold in the South Downs, five miles from Lewes. Back in 1974, Peter Hall recognised the potential for grape-growing and winemaking in the UK and decided to tap into the increasing demand for clean, elegant, cool-climate wines.

This vintage is fresh with zingy lime citrus, fine mousse and long finish. We Love it!

Bottle: £36
Glass 125ml: £6.50

4. Vino dei Poeti Prosecco, Bottega 2011 Brut Sparkling

11% Alc Vol

This Brut sparkler is produced with Prosecco grapes harvested slightly earlier than usual to ensure good acidity and structure. Gently pressed and fermented at low temperature, the highly fragrant wine becomes a dry, sparkling wine following secondary fermentation.

Vino dei Poeti, literally "wine of the poets", is named for an annual poets festival held in the hills that grow these prosecco grapes.

Bottle: £38.50

Glass 125ml £7.00

5. Cava Brut Reserve NV

11.5% Alc Vol

Castell d'Olerdola

This excellent dry cava has a very pale primrose transparency and a fine bead. It has a fine delicate aroma, slightly lemony nose, with touches of butter and yeast from ageing. It is very fruity, creamy and silky on the palate with a streak of acidity. With its 18 months to 2 years cellarage the cava acquires a good structure and elegant personality.

The wine is bright ruby red in colour & on the nose it has aromas of berry fruit compote and sweet spice. It has a soft palate with fresh bright red fruit and subtle spice flavours. The flavours linger with delicate yet defined soft fruity flavours.

Bottle: £36.00

44. Barbera d'Alba 2010, Pio Cesare Piedmont, Italy

13.5% Alc Vol

Pio's Barbera is a wine quite different from many other Barbera. This is because the Barbera grapes are grown alongside the Nebbiolo grapes. This, combined with the extensive barrel ageing, results in a wine with the strength and wild energy of a Barbera, but the refined elegance of Barolo. This is a unique Barbera—full and brave, yet soft and supple.

This wine has an intense ruby color with garnet reflections. The bouquet is distinguished and vital, with fresh, ripe fruit. The palate is clear and definite, with hints of ripe pulpy fruit, cherry, and notes of chocolate, frame with a long and pleasant finish.
