Our Rothschild Collection

The Rothschild name has been synonymous with wealth and power for over 200 years but we think their greatest achievement has been in the making of their incredible wines. Their first vintage was at Chateau Mouton in 1853 and at Chateau Lafite in 1868, both still owned by the Rothschild family today. Not content with conquering the Old World over the last 40 years they've quietly spilt out into the New World. We've worked directly with the Rothschild chateaux to bring to you a hand-picked selection from the Rothschild Wine Collection, all marked on the above with the seals of Baron Philippe de Rothschild or Domains Barons Rothschild Lafite.
