

Every Sunday is special for us.

Opening a restaurant balcony doors, fresh air breezes in and the Putney Bridge seems quieter than on any other day. Setting up the restaurant while wonderful smell of roasts and Yorkshire puddings comes from the kitchen. It feels like at home. Having a coffee during the briefing by our Head Chef Marc, just moments before the door bell rings... It is our family coming for lunch.

In addition to our restaurant menu, every Sunday we get up extra early to prepare:

Roasted 21 day aged British sirloin of beef, homemade horseradish £14

Roasted rolled belly of Dingley Dell pork, crackling, our own apple sauce, £12.50

West Country free range roast chicken £12.80

Crispy potato and vegetable cake (v) £10.50

Our roasts are served with roast potatoes, variety of seasonal vegetables,
Yorkshire pudding and gravy
