Nature of work - Financial, Mortgage and Insurance Services

Description of processing

The following is a broad description of the way this organisation/data controller processes personal information. To understand how your own personal information is processed you may need to refer to any personal communications you have received, check any privacy notices the organisation has provided or contact the organisation to ask about your personal circumstances.

Reasons/purposes for processing information

We process personal information to enable us to act as an intermediary for any financial transactions including mortgage and insurance broking, and debt administration to our clients; promote our goods and services; maintain our own accounts and records and to support and manage our staff.

Type/classes of information processed

We process information relevant to the above reasons/purposes. This may include:

- personal details
- family details
- lifestyle and social circumstances
- financial details
- employment and education details
- goods or services provided

We also process sensitive classes of information that may include:

- physical or mental health details
- racial or ethnic origin
- religious or other beliefs
- trade union membership
- offences and alleged offences

Who the information is processed about

We process personal information about:

- clients
- suppliers
- professional advisers and consultants
- enquirers, complainants
- employees

Who the information may be shared with

We sometimes need to share the personal information we process with the individual themselves and also with other organisations. Where this is necessary we are required to comply with all aspects of the Data Protection Act (DPA). What follows is a description of the types of organisations we may need to share some of the personal information we process with for one or more reasons.

Where necessary or required we share information with:

- current, past or prospective employers
- family, associates and representatives of the person whose personal data we are processing
- financial organisations
- business associates and professional advisers
- educators and examining bodies
- employment and recruitment agencies

- healthcare and welfare organisations
- credit reference agencies
- debt collection and tracing agencies
- other companies in the same group
- suppliers and services providers
- trade and employer associations
- central government
- law enforcement and prosecuting authorities
- ombudsmen and regulatory authorities
- traders in personal data
- courts and tribunals

CCTV - Crime Prevention and/or Staff Monitoring

CCTV is used for maintaining the security of property and premises and for preventing and investigating crime, it may also be used to monitor staff when carrying out work duties. For these reasons the information processed may include visual images, personal appearance and behaviours. This information may be about staff, customers and clients, offenders and suspected offenders, members of the public and those inside, entering or in the immediate vicinity of the area under surveillance. Where necessary or required this information is shared with the data subjects themselves, employees and agents, services providers, police forces, security organisations and persons making an enquiry.

Transfers

It may sometimes be necessary to transfer personal information overseas. When this is needed information is only shared within the European Economic Area (EEA). Any transfers made will be in full compliance with all aspects of the data protection act.
