We will update your account agreement, including eliminating fees and changing Overdraft Protection

We're making some changes to the terms and conditions of your account and want to provide a summary of what you can expect.

You can get the latest Deposit Account Agreement on chase.com, at a branch or by request when you call us. The parts of the Deposit Account Agreement that are changing will be in the Change in Terms section.

- On July 29, we updated the contact information for Arbitration in the General Account Terms of the Deposit Account Agreement (Section I, Part 12, Arbitration).
- On August 20, our Overdraft Protection service will change and we have rewritten the General Account Terms of the Deposit Account Agreement (Section C, Part 4, Overdraft Protection agreement) to reflect that. The most significant changes are the three things we previously told you:
  - o Only a Chase business savings account or business line of credit will be able to provide Overdraft Protection to a business checking account. A credit card cannot be used.
  - o We will transfer the exact amount needed to cover the transaction instead of multiples of $50.
  - o We will no longer charge the $10 Overdraft Protection Transfer fee.
- On August 22, we will eliminate Domestic and International Collection fees, which we charge for deposited items that require special processing for us to collect the money from the paying bank.

If you have questions, please call us at the number on this statement.
