Make sure you complete your tax return as early as possible

Tax year 6 April 2018 to 5 April 2019

Our records show that you need to send us a Self Assessment tax return to tell us about your income from 6 April 2018 to 5 April 2019. We won't be sending you a paper tax return so please file your tax return online. You can access Self Assessment online from your Online Tax Account. If you can't file your return online, you can download a copy from www.gov.uk/taxreturnforms

By law, you must send us your tax return and any information we ask for on the return – even if you don't owe any tax or have already paid all the tax you owe.

If your circumstances have changed and you think you don't need to complete a 2018 to 2019 tax return, go to www.gov.uk/check-if-you-need-a-tax-return

You don't need to do anything further if:

- you've already sent us your tax return for the 2018 to 2019 tax year – please check with HMRC if you're unsure
- you've previously contacted us and we've told you, in writing, that you don't need to send a tax return for the 2018 to 2019 tax year

Sending us your tax return online

To log in or sign up to send your tax return online, go to www.gov.uk/log-in-file-self-assessment-tax-return

Please use this address rather than use search engines to find our services. Once you've signed up, we'll send you an Activation Code. This can take 10 working days to arrive by post so please sign up now.

92% of people already file online. It's easy, secure and available 24 hours a day and you can choose to receive messages online instead of by post.

To send a partnership or trust and estate tax return, or if you're a minister of religion or lived abroad as a non-resident, you'll have to purchase commercial software.

For more information, go to www.gov.uk/software-tax-returns

If you can't file online

If for any reason you can't file your return online, you can print a copy of a return from www.gov.uk/taxreturnforms or maybe ask a friend or family member to help you. For more information about trusted helpers, go to www.gov.uk/help-friends-family-tax Alternatively, you can phone HMRC on 0300 200 3310 for general enquiries about Self Assessment.

Show this notice to your tax adviser, if you have one.

For alternative formats, go to www.gov.uk/dealing-hmrc-additional-needs

Deadlines for sending your tax return

You must make sure we receive your tax return by:

- 31 October 2019 if you use paper (or 3 months after the date of this letter if later than 31 October 2019)
- 31 January 2020 if you file online (or 3 months after the date of this letter if later than 31 January 2020)
- 30 December 2019 if you file online, owe less than £3,000 tax for the 2018 to 2019 tax year and want us to collect it through your tax code if you're employed or receive a pension in the 2020 to 2021 tax year

Penalties for filing late

You'll be charged a £100 penalty if we don't receive your return by:

- 31 October 2019 if you use paper (or 3 months after the date of this letter if later than 31 October 2019)
- 31 January 2020 if you file online (or 3 months after the date of this letter if later than 31 January 2020)

There are further penalties if your tax return is 3 months, 6 months and 12 months late. To avoid penalties, file online as early as possible.
