Driving before your new licence arrives

The law allows you to drive before you receive your driving licence as long as:

- you have held a Great Britain or Northern Ireland licence issued since 1 January 1976
- you are not disqualified from driving (there are different rules for medium or large vehicles, minibus or bus drivers - the traffic commissioner for your area will decide whether to grant your entitlement to drive these vehicles)
- you have not been, and would not be, refused a licence for medical reasons
- you keep to any special conditions which apply to the licence
- the entitlement on your licence has not expired

Your health

If you have a medical condition that could affect your driving, you must tell us immediately. For more information on medical conditions you need to tell us about visit our website at www.direct.gov.uk/driverhealth.
